Appendix 2

An interview guide for youth/children

The interview is confidential and for the research purposes only. Both positive and negative points of view are required.

Answer the questions below.

Everyday you are involved with using water. Could you please share with me what role water plays in your life and how it fits into your community life and daily routine? Could you also please explain how water is wasted and suggest ways of solving this problem?