I would like to express my gratitude to those people who have helped me in my labors on this study of Saint Francis. In the first place, I would like to thank my Promoter, Professor Madge Karecki. Her help and dedication, her firm guidance and kindly encouragement in difficult times were an unfailing support.

My thanks are due also to the library staff at the University of South Africa for help in locating books and articles, and providing copies. I would also like to thank my colleagues at Saint Bonaventure College in Lusaka, especially Dr. Colin Garvey, for his unfailing help and encouragement.

To my religious congregation, the Franciscan Missionaries of the Divine Motherhood, and especially Sister Mary Rose Doyle who approved the project, and to the sisters of my community for their patience and encouragement I offer my gratitude and love.
