

JUVENILE PERCEPTIONS OF SHOP THEFT

IN THE

MABOPANE AREA

BY

LEBOGANG RICHARD MORODI

Submitted in the fulfilment of the requirements for the degree of

MAGISTER ARTIUM

in the subject

CRIMINOLOGY

at the

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH AFRICA

SUPERVISOR: PROFESSOR HERMAN CONRADIE

MARCH 2004

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The researcher would like to express his heartfelt special thanks and sincere gratitude as well as appreciation to the following people:

- Heavenly FATHER, who gave me strength to pursue this research work to its completion.
- My supervisor, Professor Herman Conradie for his guidance, consistent willingness and interest, assistance and motivation. The final product owes much to his positive criticisms and suggestions.
- My Mother, Lephalamang Doris for her unconditional, support and encouragement, a real teacher.
- My family for their uncontested support during difficult times.
- Professors Jan Nesor, Charl Cilliers for guidance and motivation and Mrs Kotie Nienaber.
- Prof Beaty Naudé for her guidance and encouragement and Dr Tas Ladikos for technical assistance.
- The principals, teachers and learners of the two high schools which participated in this research, for the permission and cooperation.
- Mr Mokgele Madise for proofreading and constructive criticisms.
- The Department of Criminology and Administration of Criminal Justice.
- Unisa library, computer service, the editor, bindery section.

Dedication

This research work is dedicated to my parents, my late father Alfred Rateswane and mother Lephalamang Doris Morodi for their inspiration, encouragement and support.