DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

Mean = The sum of all scores divided by the number of scores

Median = The middle value, or the score for which half of the respondents have higher value and half a lower value

Mode = The score or value of the variable that occurs most often