

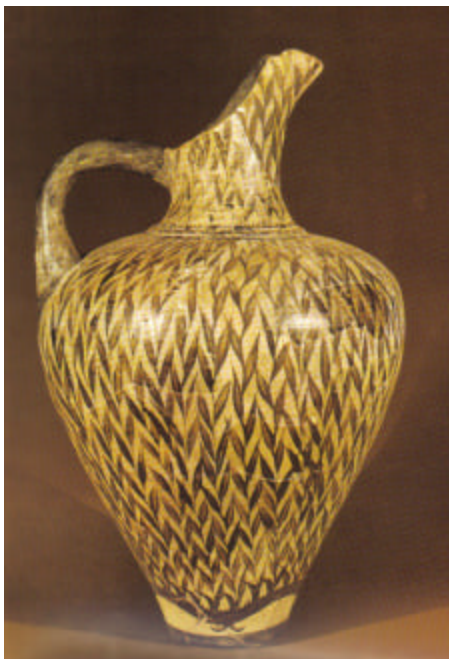

Plate 23 - Palace Style Pottery

Floral Style Jug (Above).
(From Andronicos: 1979, 35).

Palace Style Jars (Above).
(From Vasilakis: 110).

Marine Style Rhyton and Pilgrim Flask
(Above and Left).
(From Vasilakis: 146-147)

Plate 26 - Linear A Logograms

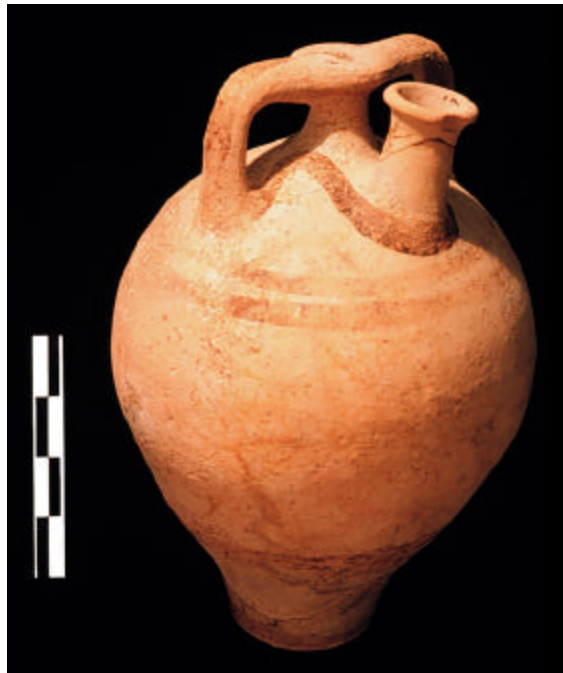

(From Schoep: 2002 (A), 51-52)

Plate 27 - Stirrup Jars

Stirrup Jar from Kato Zakros (Right).

(From Papapostoulo: 1981, 119)

Large Courseware Stirrup Jar from the Ulu Burun Wreck. The vessel is Mycenaean, although was possibly made in Crete (Above).

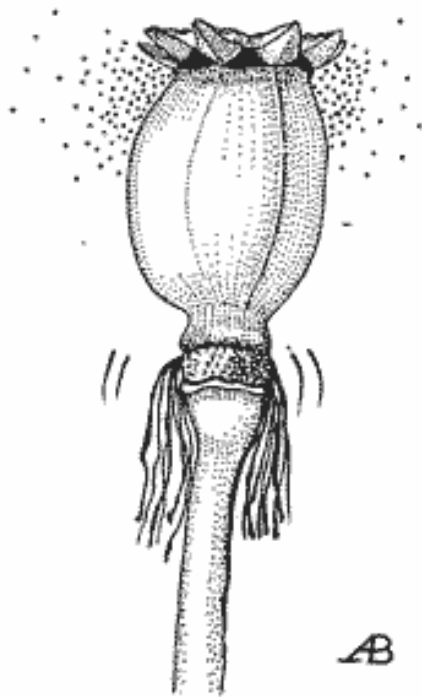

(Photo: INA Website)

Plate 28 - Cypriot Courseware Jug

Cypriot Jug found on the Ulu Burun Wreck. The shape resembles an Opium Capsule (Above).

(From Bass: 1987, 711).

Opium poppy capsule. Artwork © Anne Bebbington.

(From Internet Site: www-saps.plantsci.cam.ac.uk/fscfruit/pages/opium_poppy_capsule.htm)

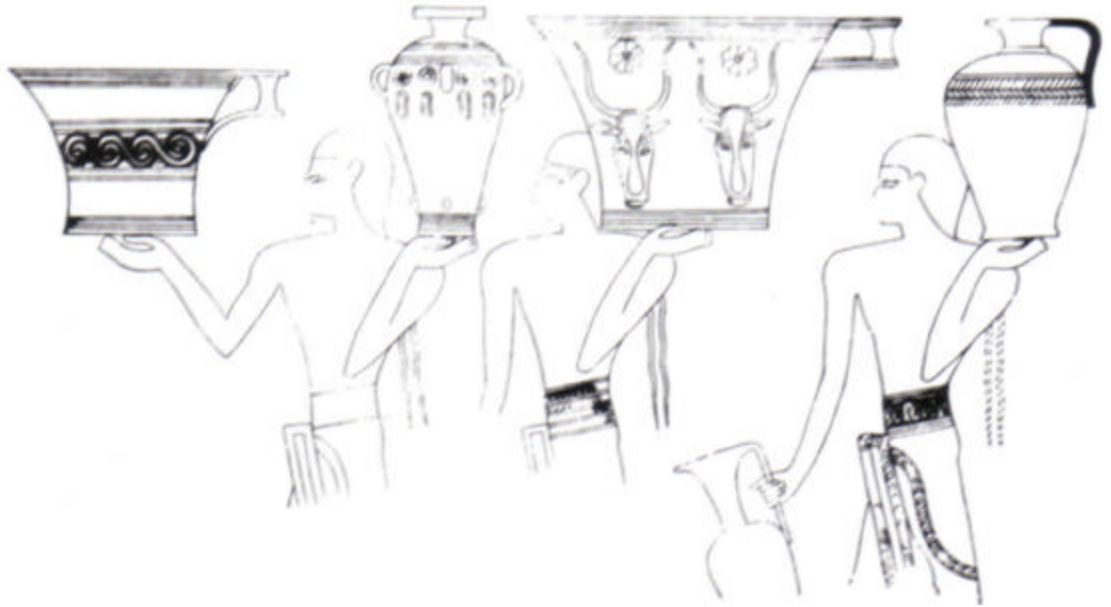

Plate 29 - Niello Technique

Daggers from Mycenaean Shaft Graves showing niello technique with gold and silver inlay.

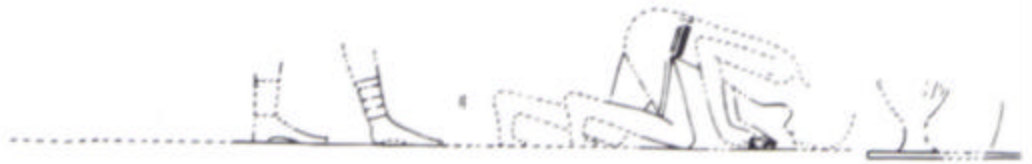

(From Higgins: 1997, 138).

Plate 30 - The Tombs of Senmut and Intef

Aegean Porters in the Tomb of Senmut. Note oversized Vapheio Cups (Above).

(From Wachsmann: 1987, Plate XXIII)

A) Detail of the remains of Register I of the scene of foreign tribute from the tomb of Intef (T. 155).
Hatshepsut-Thutmose III.

Scant evidence of Aegean Porters in the Tomb of Intef (Above).

(From Wachsmann: 1987, Plate XXVI).

Plate 31 - The Tomb of Puimre

A) Scene showing foreign representatives. Tomb of Puimre (T. 39). Thutmose III.

B) The foreign representatives. Detail of A.

(From Wachsmann: 1987, Plate XXIV)

Plate 33 - The Tomb of Mencheperresonb

From Wachsmann: 1987, Plates XXXIV& LVI

Registers I-II including display at left, from the tomb of Mencheperresonb (T. 86). Thutmose III.

The Tomb of Mencheperresonb showing both registers. The Aegeans appear in register 1. (Above).

Detail of goods carried by Aegean Porters in 1st Register (Right).

Objects which are brought by porters or appear in the display of Register I in the scene of foreign tribute from the tomb of Mencheperresonb (T. 86). Thutmose III.

Plate 34 - The Tomb of Rekhmire

From Wachsmann, 1987, Plates XL & LVIII

The scene of foreign tribute from the tomb of Rekhmire (T. 100). Thutmose III-Amehotep II.

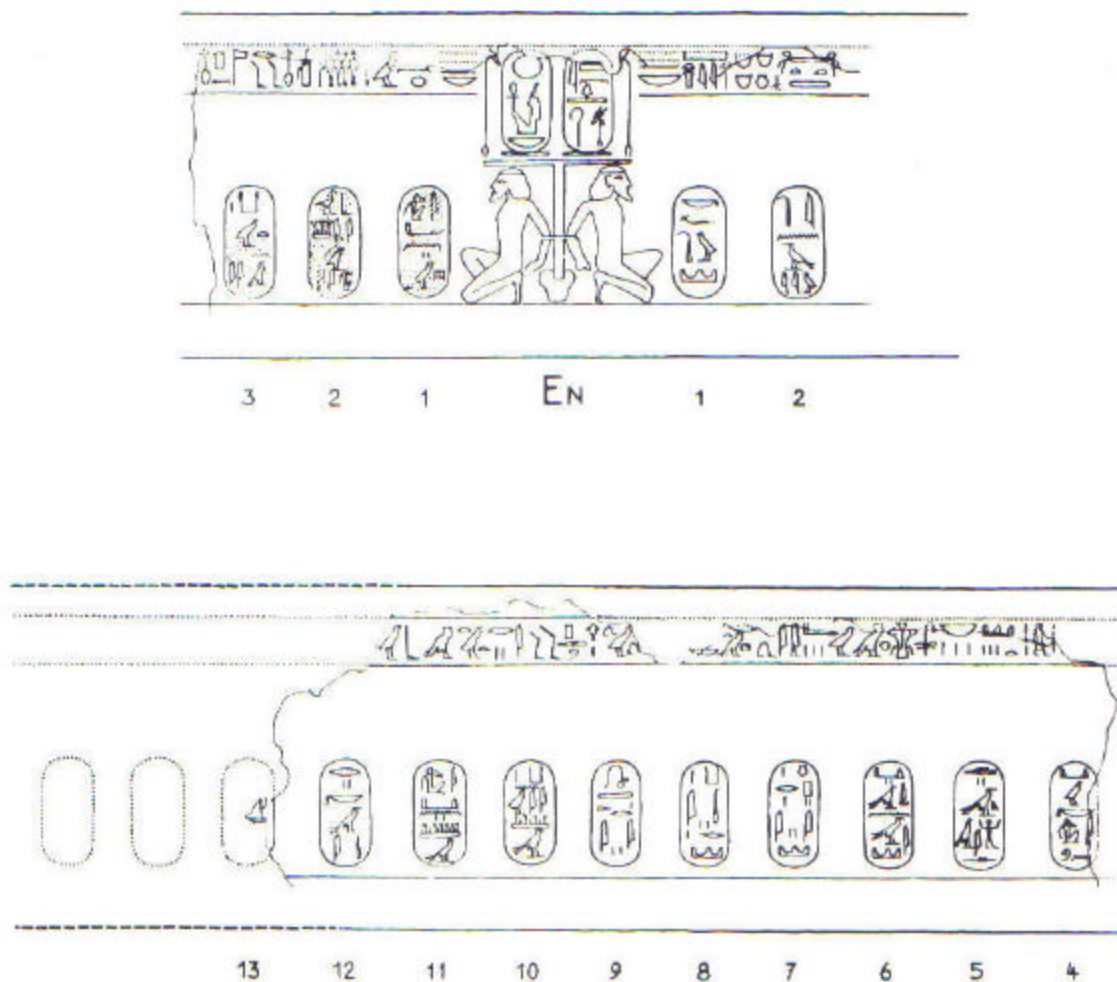

The Tomb of Rekhmire showing all registers. The Aegeans appear in register 2. (Above).

Objects which are brought by porters or appear in the display of Register II in the scene of foreign tribute from the tomb of Rekhmire (T. 100). Thutmose III-Amehotep II.

Detail of goods
carried by Aegean
Porters in 2nd
Register (Left).

Plate 35 - Aegean Names on an Egyptian Statue Base

Aegean place names on an Egyptian statue base. From the forecourt of Amenhotep III's funerary temple at Kom el-Hetan (List EN).

(From Wachsmann, 1987, Plate LXVIII)

Plate 36 - Conical & Theriomorphic Rhyta

Conical Rhyton from Kato Zakros (Left).

(From Higgins: 1997, 161)

Bull-Head (Above) and Lion-Head
Rhyta (Left) from Knossos.

(From Vasilakis: 90-91)