

INDEX

Chapter	Page
1. ORIENTATION AND PROBLEM STATEMENT	1
1.1 Introduction	1
1.2 Goal of research	1
1.3 Rationale	2
1.4 Delimitation of the research	3
1.4.1 Spatial delimitation	3
1.4.2 Time delimitation	6
1.4.3 Sampling	6
1.4.4 Crime incidence	8
1.4.5 Definitions	11
1.5 Hypotheses	18
1.6 The research process	22
1.6.1 Data collection and data analysis	22
1.6.2 Processing of data	28
1.6.3 Data analysis and interpretation	28
1.7 Problems encountered during the research	31
1.8 Compilation of this report	32
1.9 Conclusion	32
2. CRIME PREVENTION MODELS FOCUSSING ON THE CRIMINAL	33
2.1 Introduction	33
2.2 Biological crime prevention model	33
2.2.1 Pioneers	34
2.2.2 Further developments	38
2.2.3 Crime prevention and punishment	42
2.3 Psychological crime prevention model	44
2.3.1 Pioneers	44
2.3.2 Further developments	49
2.3.3 Crime prevention and punishment	52
2.3.4 Effectiveness	53
2.4 Legal sanctions and punishment as a crime prevention model	54
2.4.1 Pioneers	54
2.4.2 Further developments	59
2.4.3 Crime prevention and punishment	61

Chapter	Page
2.5 Conclusion	63
3. CRIME PREVENTION MODELS FOCUSSING ON THE CRIMINAL'S ENVIRONMENT	64
3.1 Introduction	64
3.2 The sociological crime prevention model	64
3.2.1 Pioneers	64
3.2.2 Further developments	69
3.2.3 Crime prevention and punishment	89
3.3 Conclusion	90
4. CRIME PREVENTION MODEL FOCUSSING ON THE MILIEU OF THE VICTIM	93
4.1 Introduction	93
4.2 The mechanical and physical milieu crime prevention model	93
4.2.1 Pioneers	94
4.2.2 Further developments	98
4.3 Crime prevention through environmental design (CPTED)	99
4.3.1 Territoriality, defensible space	99
4.3.2 Surveillance and visibility	102
4.3.3 Location	106
4.3.4 Image and aesthetics	108
4.3.5 Access control	110
4.3.6 Target hardening	113
4.4 Background on the development of CPTED in South Africa	115
4.4.1 United States	115
4.4.2 The United Kingdom	115
4.4.3 The Netherlands	116
4.5 South Africa	121
4.5.1 Overview of crime trends in South Africa	122
4.5.2 National crime prevention strategy (NCPS)	122
4.5.3 National crime combating strategy (NCCS)	125
4.6 Conclusion	127
5. ASPECTS OF SAFE NEIGHBOURHOODS

5.1	Introduction	130
5.2	Residential neighbourhoods	130

Chapter		Page
5.2.1	Crime versus gated communities	131
5.2.2	Pedestrian activity	131
5.2.3	Maintenance of gated communities	132
5.2.4	Long term influence of gated communities	133
5.3	Safety of a residential neighbourhood	134
5.4	Prevention of residential burglary	137
5.4.1	Large scale planning implications	137
5.4.2	Decision making process of burglary	138
5.4.3	Residential burglary patterns	139
5.4.4	Theoretical model of prevention	139
5.4.5	Strategic prevention of burglary	140
5.5	Crime prevention management systems in the three neighbourhoods	144
5.5.1	Prairie Estate	144
5.5.2	Glossa Estate	146
5.5.3	Woodlands Lifestyle Estate	150
5.6	Conclusion	162
6.	EMPIRICAL FINDINGS AND THE HONC AGAINST CRIME MODEL	164
6.1	Introduction	164
6.2	Description of estates	165
6.2.1	Prairie Estate	165
6.2.2	Glossa Estate	165
6.2.3	Woodlands Lifestyle Estate	166
6.2.4	Incidence of crime within the estates	166
6.2.5	Image of estates	170
6.3	Healthy lifestyle	172
6.3.1	Social cohesion	173
6.3.2	Fitness	176
6.4	Online (information technology)	179
6.5	Nature	183
6.6	CPTED	186
6.6.1	Location of dwellings	188
6.6.2	Image of dwellings	191

6.6.3	Surveillance of dwellings	193
6.6.4	Physical barriers and target hardening of dwellings	198

Chapter	Page
----------------	-------------

6.7	Conclusion	201
-----	------------	-----

7.	SUMMARY, CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS	203
-----------	---	------------

7.1	Introduction	203
7.2	Short summary of research	203
7.3	Findings	203
7.4	Recommendations	208
7.4.1	Recommendation for Woodlands Lifestyle Estate	208
7.4.2	Recommendations for the development of new gated communities	209
7.5	Recommendations for further research	210
7.6	Conclusion	210

BIBLIOGRAPHY	212
---------------------	------------

ANNEXURE A:	QUESTIONNAIRE
--------------------	----------------------

ANNEXURE B:	MAPS
--------------------	-------------

LIST OF IMAGES

Image	Page
1.1 Map of Woodlands Lifestyle Estate	3
1.2 Map of Prairie Estate	4
1.3 Map of Glossa Estate	5
1.4 Biographical information	7
1.5 Residential burglary in Woodlands Lifestyle Estate 2001 - 2002	9
1.6 Residential burglary in Prairie Estate 2001 - 2002	10
1.7 Residential burglary in Glossa Estate 2001 - 2002	11
1.8 The basic elements of a crime	12
1.9 The Chi-square distribution	30
5.1 Woodlands Lifestyle Estate	132
5.2 Prairie Estate	144
5.3 Glossa Estate	146
5.4 Lifestyle centre	158

LIST OF PHOTOS

Photo	Page
5.1 View of Morelettaspruit Nature Reserve	147
5.2 Entrance of neighbourhood in Wekker Street	148
5.3 Park	149
5.4 Example of street scape in Glossa	149
5.5 Main entrance	153
5.6 Service entrance	154
5.7 Brick boundary wall	155
5.8 Palisade boundary wall	155
5.9 Culverts	157
5.10 Street scapes within Woodlands	159
5.11 Pedestrian routes and green areas	160
5.12 Architectural style	161

LIST OF TABLES

Table	Page
3.1 C-E-M Presentation of Crime Prevention Models	91
4.1 Crime prevention model focussing on the milieu of the victim	128
5.1 Differences between a low and high crime neighbourhood	134
5.2 The incidence of crimes within Woodlands, The Prairie and Glossa neighbourhoods	142
6.1 Estate versus residential burglaries	167
6.2 Estate versus attempted residential burglaries	168
6.3 Estate versus theft at premises	169
6.4 Estate versus feeling safe during the day	171
6.5 Estate versus feeling safe during the night	172
6.6 Social cohesion versus residential burglary	174
6.7 Estate versus informing the security guards	175
6.8 Estate versus participation in outdoor activities within estate	178
6.9 Outdoor activities within estate versus residential burglary	179
6.10 Estate versus personal computers at home	180
6.11 Estate versus knowledge of own website of estate	181
6.12 Estate versus loiterers in streets	184
6.13 Estate versus normal activity in streets	185
6.14 Estate versus people in gardens	186
6.15 Crime prevention model for Woodlands Lifestyle Estate	186
6.16 Estate versus dwellings situated in cul-de-sacs	190
6.17 Estate versus dwellings totally surrounded	190
6.18 Estate versus feeling safe during the day at dwelling	192
6.19 Estate versus feeling safe during the night at dwellings	193
6.20 Estate versus visibility of front door of dwelling	194
6.21 Estate versus walking within the neighbourhood	195
6.22 Walking in the estate versus residential burglary	197
6.23 Estate versus fencing around premises	198
6.24 Security measures of dwellings	199
7.1 Hypotheses and findings	207