

1st Nov 1909

Dear Mr. Locke,

I see I have pained you unnecessarily about the book. The fact is the publisher contrary to my expectations happens to be an easy going man. He has taken up the publishing work as a hobby only. Hence his heart is not in his work. He is one of his pleasures, so he spends all he earns. When I came to know all this, I realized what a mistake it was to have ever handed him charge of publication. But I have not worried about it. I felt about it somewhat because of the disappointment that it must be to you. In my