16th Nov 1909

She bit her lips.

I can I have painted you unnecessarily about the book. The fact is the publisher contrary to my expectations happens to be an enaging man. He has taken up the publishing work as a hobby only. Hence his heart is in his work. He is one of the publishers, so he spends all he earns when I came to know all this, I realised what a mistake it was to have every hand in charge of the publication. But I have not worried about it. I felt about it somewhat because of the disappointment. I must be to you. In my... opinion the book itself is well got up. When the publication was decided upon, I thought that it would help forward the struggle.
As it has not been taken up by a good firm of publishers, it would go to further the aims.
It would give me a little. For the sake of the struggle it appears to me that the advertizing of the book should be avoided. However, it is there or we have to abide by the result. I hope you will dismiss the whole subject from your mind.

Yet, I know full well what a tremendous strain the struggle must put upon you. Every week I read J. 6. shows me more and more what amount of work you are putting in. And this perhaps is the last exacting part of this work. I am longing to relieve you of some of the strain. And yet can I! I must challenge arrest. The strain upon you will therefore continue. May God give you strength to do this.

Mrs. ____, Oct. 8

I have sent a very important letter to ____ and attached with it.

I have written, will you please destroy it or one of you keep it safely.

I have seen, studied and observed much during my stay. The letter to ____ and ____ gives a part of my observations.

The Chinese business degree is a farce. It is my deliberate opinion that lawyers, doctors, and clergymen as professional men are on the curses of mankind. They would lead us astray. I hope I am not offensive in making this remark when you and I have some breathing time, I shall gladly submit to your cross-examination and find out any weakness of any of the position I have taken up. The harsher punishment inflicted by justice mean only support the above view.

Let me hear how in the 13th instant to you will be seeing my Nise letter. I will say nothing about it.

Please remember me to your like & children.

Yours truly

[Signature]
The Rev J. J. Leake
Sutherland Avenue
Johannesburg
South Africa