JACQUES PIERRE DE MOWBRAY NIEHAUS (1910 – 2008)

Jacques Pierre de Mowbray Niehaus was born in Clanwilliam in 1910. He was educated at the Rondebosch Boys High School and at the University of Cape Town where he had by the age of twenty graduated with a BA LLB degree. In 1931 he received the degree LLM from London University. Two years later, Mr Niehaus (also known as Percy) became Assistant Attorney-General of South West Africa (now Namibia) and from 1939 to 1941 he was acting Attorney-General for the Territory.

During World War II, Percy Niehaus joined the Pretoria Regiment and saw service in Egypt and Italy. He later played an important part in the demobilisation and rehabilitation of returning soldiers. After the war, Niehaus started his own legal practice in Windhoek.

In 1945 he represented the United National South West Party (UNSWP) in the SWA election and was elected a member of the Legislative Assembly for Okahandja, becoming a member of the Executive Committee and Leader of the UNSWP in 1950. From 1955 to 1966 Percy Niehaus represented the Windhoek East constituency in the Legislative Assembly of South West Africa.

Mr Niehaus also served in the South African Parliament as a nominated United Party senator for Natal during the period 1970 to 1974. In 1973 he was the leader of the Parliamentary delegation to France, Belgium and Luxembourg. He, however, continued to be active in South West African politics, becoming chairman of the SWA Action Group in 1976 and he also took part in the Turnhalle Convention the following year. He represented AKTUR (Action for the Retention of the Turnhalle Principles) in the National Assembly from 1978 onwards. Towards the middle of the eighties, Mr Niehaus retired from active politics.

After his retirement, he and his wife Anna lived in Somerset Strand. He continued to visit Namibia regularly for his business and farming interests. Mr Niehaus died in December 2008.

South West Africa
This was the former name of the modern day Namibia. It was a German Colony from 1884 to 1915. In 1915 it was invaded by the Forces of the then Union of South Africa (now Republic of South Africa) at the request of the Allied Forces during the First World War. It became a Mandate Territory of the United Nations and was administered by South Africa until independence in 1990.

THE J P NIEHAUS PAPERS (3.2 linear metres)

The Niehaus Papers were donated to the United Party Archives in 1991 and reflect the distinguished political and legal career of a man who played an important part over several decades in the development of South West Africa. The papers comprise of correspondence, memoranda, pamphlets and press cuttings which would be of great interest to students of history and political science. The subject material ranges from agricultural, economic, labour and constitutional matters to legal affairs, with the accent always on South West Africa. One of the most interesting files dates from Mr Niehaus's time as Attorney-General of South West Africa. This file contains information on Nazi activities in the Territory prior to World War II as well as the original telegramme of September 1939 from the German Consul in Pretoria informing his counterpart in South West Africa that Germany and South Africa were at war with each other. The Niehaus Papers are an important addition to the United Party Archives as they provide an overview of many of the events that brought about constitutional development and changes in South West Africa/Namibia.
