Dear Nathaniel,

I was very agreeably surprised to receive your letter of 31 October 1957 which indicated that you had managed to reach the United Kingdom. I am not going to ask how you did it but content myself with congratulating you for having done it. A couple of days after I had received your letter, I got one from Canon Collins in connection with your application for a scholarship. I have written to him in your favour and I trust you will be fixed up in the near future.

We are in the throes of exams here at Fort Hare, so there is not much time for relaxation just now. Anyway I am enjoying my holiday from the Drill Hall although it won't be long before we have to pack up again to go and sit like dolls in front of Mr. Wessels.

I hope you will meet Mr Selby Ngcobo, one of our lecturers who is also over there on a period of study leave. He is at the Institute of Commonwealth Studies. You will be able to get more Fort Hare news from him.

In the meantime may I wish you the best of luck and a profitable time in your sojourn overseas. Do let us hear from you from time to time.

Yours sincerely,

S.K.H.
