Dr. Z. K. Mathews
Union Theological Seminary

Dear Dr. Mathews:

I talked with Mrs. Culver of the World Council of Churches this morning. They were not planning to do anything at the moment and she suggested that I call the Herald Tribune directly.

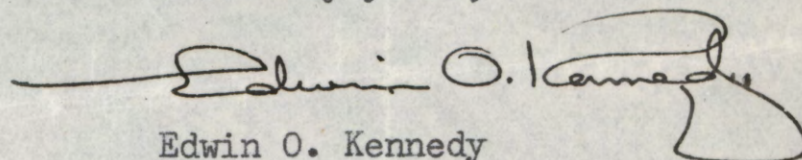

Mrs. Ogden Reid was busy, but one of the managing editors, Mr. George Cornish, called me back this afternoon and gave me the report from Miss Price, the reporter, whom he described as a conscientious and competent member of their staff. I presented him with your report, and he expressed deep regret and a sincere desire to try to make any possible correction.

He said they would be willing, if you wished, to print a letter from you or even a statement of correction. If you think this is desirable, I would be glad to try to help in any way possible. It should be prepared and put in their hands within the next day or two at the latest while the subject is current. It should be sent to Mr. Cornish in care of the Herald Tribune, 230~~W~~ West 41st Street, New York City.

Unless I hear from you, I will assume that you have decided to do nothing further in the matter.

I greatly regret that you have been subjected to this misrepresentation and sincerely hope that you will not be troubled by any unhappy consequences.

Cordially yours,

Edwin O. Kennedy
