Miss J. Pim,
5, Gordon Hill,
Parktown,
JOHANNESBURG.

Dear Miss Pim,

Mr. Leslie Blackwell, who was visiting Johannesburg for a few days, called on me yesterday afternoon, and asked what progress had been made with our proposed fund raising effort for Professors Matthews and Nyembezi. To my embarrassment, I had to tell him that nothing had been done as yet and said that I would write him after I had heard from you again. Do you not think the time is now ripe to push ahead with the project, and, if you do, what steps do you suggest we take to get things moving?

I would be grateful if you would give this matter your urgent attention, as I would like to tell Mr. Blackwell that we have made a start.

Yours sincerely,

L.S.T.
