April 27, 1957.

Professor Z.K. Matthews,
c/o The Drill Hall,
JOHANNESBURG.

Dear Professor Matthews,

Somebody I know is leaving for Johannesburg to-night and I am asking her to take along a letter for you. I hope she's reliable and gives it to you in reasonable time.

I was very excited about your article which puts the whole University Bill in the right perspective. Unfortunately, it was much too long and I have had to cut it drastically to about 3,750 words or 9 pages of type in the magazine. I don't think however, that any of the point has been lost, as I hope you will agree when you get the fourth issue.

Do try and persuade A.J. to write something for me. I know how busy he is, but while the magazine is allowed to exist, it can be very useful. It must be read at the moment by 6,000 odd in South Africa alone, and the sort that is not generally given to thinking.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

Ronald Segal