Dear Zali,

You and Nida will be interested in the attached which I received a few days ago.

In writing to Miss Parkinson of the British Council I mentioned that John Knox's cousin was there too — hence the reference to her in the letter. Incidentally, we had a very pleasant thank you letter from John Knox, written on the boat.

Well and I have been very much disturbed by the escapades at Fort Hare. And we were thoroughly angry at the way in which the Minister announced that you were to be detained. Needless to say, we are glad you are to remain on, difficult and irritating though your position will no doubt be. At the moment we can, all of us, just hang on till the tide turns, as I'm sure it will.

Warmest greetings from us both to you both. If you see your mother-in-law, Dr. Boturo, please give her our kindest regards. Yrs as ever, Edw. [Signature]
