Dearest Antana and family,

We only got the news two days ago, that you have lost Uncle Zac. We didn't hear it on the radio last Sunday. But on reaching Eldoret, we met friends who had heard it; and they told us that Uncle Zac is being flown to Gaberones this week.

So instead of a telegram to you in New York, we now send our condolences to you, to Ruth, who will deliver this to you, to reach you sooner.

We never forget Uncle Zac, or your Aunt Frieda. Uncle Z.K. was a true Leader and Man. Frieda, Uncle Z.K. was a true Leader and Man. Frieda, and in you, he had a most wonderful partner, and friend, and companion. We are glad to think of you being among relations, at this time; especially that your children and grandchildren, some of them at least, and friends also, are supporting
