Dear Mr Williams,

I am sorry that I have not been able to return to you my article, with additional material, by the date which you had suggested, namely, the first week in October. I was handicapped by the fact that after a bout of fairly serious illness I was summoned to Pretoria to give evidence for the Defence in the Treason Trial. I must apologise for the inconvenience which my delay has undoubtedly caused.

I would like to suggest that the additional material which I am sending back with the proof you so kindly sent to me could most usefully be inserted on page 21, as indicated by me on the proof. I would also suggest the insertion of the words "Social Anthropology" in the place indicated on the title-page. Trusting that the article in its amended form will meet with your approval, I remain,

Yours sincerely,
