

A photograph of a wooden flute with a brass bell. The flute is positioned diagonally from the top-left to the bottom-right. It has a light-colored wood body with several finger holes. A small circular emblem is visible on the lower part of the body. The bell is made of brass and has a flared, conical shape. The entire instrument is set against a solid red background.

UNI/M/ 203 (HS)

