Slotow Africana Collection (1810-1975)

MSS 76 (23 boxes)

The Unisa Library bought the Slotow Africana Collection from Mrs SL Slotow of Slotow Africana Dealers in April 1992. The Pretoria shop closed after her husband's death. The Afrikaans Inventory to the Collection was recently updated and translated into English. The bulk of the material is in English, Afrikaans and Dutch. The items were arranged alphabetically and chronologically in three categories. During the arrangement process special attention was given to the preservation of the very fragile, at-risk archival materials and mylar pockets were made for these items. One hundred and fourteen files were created and then divided into Subjects files, Files on people and Magazines and periodicals. In order to preserve the alphabetical sequence within the inventory, the numerical order of some of the Subjects files changed during the translation process. The old numbers from the original Afrikaans inventory were added in brackets to the updated table of contents. The numbering of the Files on people and the section Magazines and periodicals was unaffected by the translation.

The scope of the Slotow Africana Collection

The Subjects files consist of forty-nine files on diverse subjects such as the Voortrekkers, the Cape Colony and Boer Republics, the Anglo-Boer War, the 1914 Rebellion and Jopie Fourie, the First and Second World Wars, the British Royal family, church and religion, the development of the Afrikaans language, music events and compositions, Netherlands-South African relations and special historical celebrations of South African cities and towns e.g. Johannesburg, Pretoria, Bloemfontein, Barberton and Hopetown to name a few. The file on churches and religion includes materials on the Genadendal mission, the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, the Evangelical Lutheran and Anglican churches (also Cape Town's St George's Cathedral) as well as the Dutch Reformed, Reformed and Hervormde churches.

The thirty-six Files on people include interesting information on persons such as Frans Oerder, Rev GWA van der Lingen, Sir NF de Waal, Pres Kruger, Prof J Lion-Cachet, SJ de Toit, Dr DF Malan, C Louis Leipoldt and his father Rev CF Leipoldt. Of special interest is Dr. F W R Silke's diaries (6 volumes) about his medical studies, his life and career covering the period 1878 to 1923.

The section on Magazines and periodicals consists of twenty-nine rare titles which include The Bluestocking (published by the SA Association of University Women), nineteenth century religious journals such as De Honigby, De Kindervriend and De Gereformeerde Kerkbode in SA (1860-1892), Cape Monthly Magazine (1858-1880), Goue Mnora, The Veld / The African Pictorial, South African Illustrated News (1885) and J B Smithers' manuscript Strand Street Magazine (1862-1864).

The Slotow Africana Collection (1810-1975) contains valuable and rare archival materials and information for researchers interested in South African historical and social events, theology, biography and literature.
