Prevention

1 Malaria is like a chain

2 For prevention of malaria if we can break that chain somewhere, then we can prevent malaria from getting to other people.

I think out yourself where to break the chain.

How to reduce the spread of malaria parasite

1. proper treatment of the patient.
2. Fight against the Mosquitoes
 - (a) the larva (b) the adult.
 The larva of the Anubia can be attacked by putting salt in the...

[47] puddles. (2) fill the puddles in
3. Draining the puddles by making furrows for puddle water to run out Paris green kills the anopheline larvae.

Why don't the Paris Green
kill the Culicine larvae?
Because the culicines feed below the surface of the water, whilst the anopheline larvae feed on the surface & thus eat this Paris Green dust.

2. The Funestus larvae must be destroyed by (a) oiling
the grass near the river
(b) remove the grass near the water edges. (larvacides)

The Adult Mosquito
Insecticides kill the mosquito
Larvacide kills the larva

[48]
Adult Mosquito
1. Kill it by the use of insecticides in the house.
i.e. Spraying the house out, with the insecticide that the Government recommends Nauvel Pyagra. ^{Parish Pyagra} 19.1 2. Siting the houses: i.e. building your houses at the best place by selecting a place far away from breeding places of the Mosquito (From November to May Spray your rooms)
3. Gauzzing the house to prevent the mosquito from coming in.
4. The use of bed-nets. 9/6
5. The use of repellent smears
i.e. white emulsion, citronella oil etc when you are out on the lands or on verandas.
Spray yourself. It will help for the [49] saline will do but it is too greasy.

3. The healthy person must do the above. He must prevent the mosquito biting him. That is the only way to prevent malaria.

Single bed net 8/6 post free. air-de-cologne will do to keep away the mosquito. Any smell will do.

A parasite is something that lives at the expense of another thing.

If you explain a person more than necessary he gets mixed up.

~~See page 7 in Chateaubriand~~
