

Valdezia Mission

What Faces The Teachers.

Teachers are generally busy throughout the year except during holidays; but, the present half of the year, or the month of May, in particular, is perhaps the ^{most} busiest time as far as the schools in this area are concerned. We are facing the annual inspections (which makes us pass very anxious times), we are coping with bad attendances following the fever season. But this is all good and it is right that we should do that lest we mean to commit suicide of our profession. But our activities do not end within the walls of the school-room, but spread far and wide to dimensions of unusual size. As generally known, the Show is at hand and we ^{are} already smelling it. That the success of the ~~set~~ Show depends more or less on us teachers, is a fact that goes without question. We hope we are all agreed that, ^{as} long as we are economically low, a talk of higher educational attainments is out of question. We shall climb on the ladder of education and civilisation in the same measure as we are economically prosperous. The industrial and agricultural education are our long-~~needed~~ needs, and we can only, ^{achieve} those ~~high~~ heights

Phases of

Vicissitudes of Life.

(an autobiography By Mr. Docomoco & Co Ltd.)

Boys: Yes, Mr. Docomoco & Co, tell us now! You have lived long enough in this world to be able to tell us your younger folks what life is composed of.

Doco: Yes my men, I have lived over forty winters in this rolling world and I have seen things.

Boys: Tell us, we are interested, please tell us, what did you see. Begin from the beginning. How old were you when you were born?

Doco: Funny! You ask me how old I was when I was born! ~~I was~~ First I was a second old, then a minute, then an hour, then a day, then a week, then a month, then a year and so forth & so fifth & so sixth & ^{seventh?} ~~so~~

Boys: Haha! Carry on, we are charmed.

Doco: The first thing that I did when I was born I cried.

Boys: Why did you cry?

Doco: ~~Because I did not want to come into~~
~~This world~~

Doco: Because I noticed that I had landed into a world of struggle of jealousies & of sin. I did not like this world because of all its troubles & its diseases, of accidents & deaths. That is why I cried.

A youngster: What was the taste of mother's milk Mr Doco?

Doco: Funny! You are nearer the beginning than I am, you ought to know, I can't remember.

Another youngster: Tell us Doco, what happened to you when you were a boy like me?

Doco: What happened to me then is what is happening to you now. Oh! the good old days, how I wish I were at the beginning again! I would avoid all the ^{wrongs} ~~ills~~ that I have ~~you~~ made. Dear boys, look here, listen to me. If I were you I would live straight, avoid sin, attend schools and postpone marriage.

All Boys: Haha! we are interested - go on old man! He's a sport! He's a guy! Go on Doco!

Doco: My mother tells me that I was very beautiful & all the girls liked to carry me about. I was a child of admiration.

When I grew older, older boys used to ^{come for} ~~visit~~ me me and put me into one of their small carts. These carts were made of paraffin boxes. The wheels were those of a plough & the ~~shafts~~ shafts were ordinary sticks.

They inspanned themselves to one of these carts & they did not mind spending the whole day pulling these carts as long as I was in one of them.
