

Acknowledgements

I wish to acknowledge the important role players whose support and encouragement enabled me to complete this study. I would like to express my gratitude especially to the following:

- God, for giving me the strength, wisdom, health and determination to complete this study.
- My supervisor, Martie van der Merwe, for your guidance, support, encouragement and patience throughout this study. This gave me confidence to complete this work.
- My co-supervisor, Dr. A. Perold, for your guidance and support.
- The Midland Complex Management, for granting me permission to pursue this study.
- Dr. Mhlongo (Regional Office) for granting me permission to continue with the research.
- All the mentally retarded patients, their families and guardians in the community of District 22 (sub-district 222) for their cooperation in the study.
- My dear mother, even though you are no longer with me, you supported me throughout, wanting me to succeed in all my studies. Thank you mom.
- My sister, Beatrice, and brothers, Matthew, Robert and Ronald, for your continuous support and being so proud of me.
- My loving children, Belinda, Shenelle, Tamlyn, Keegan, I love you.
- BJ for your help and encouragement when I was very stressed to go on. You believed in me when I said, "I believe I can fly."
- All my colleagues at Midlands Umgeni Hospital, Mrs. F. du Preez, Mrs. C. N. Sosibo, Mrs. S. Sivramen, Mrs. R. Senjaveraj, Ms. S. Mngoma, and Mr. M. Moodley. Your support and encouragement gave me confidence and courage throughout the study.
- My dear friends Val Grantham and Leon Dasarath for their unselfishness and help with the typing of this work.
- The Unisa library staff (Durban Regional Branch) for tracing and obtaining resources for me.
- Kammy Naidoo (Librarian Pietermaritzburg Municipality) for your prompt responses to my requests and obtaining the resources for me.

- Nkosinathi Kuseni (Greys Hospital Librarian) for all your help.
- Dr. Pablo Rodriguez for analyzing the data for this study.
- The editor for editing this dissertation in such a professional manner.
