DEFINITIONS OF TERMS

Mean   = The sum of all scores divided by the number of scores

Median   = The middle value, or the score for which half of the respondents have higher value and half a lower value

Mode   = The score or value of the variable that occurs most often