

Contents

Acknowledgments	iii
------------------------	------------

Chapter 1. Building the picture	1
Introduction	1
Gender Consciousness	2
The motivation for this topic	3
Research curiosity	3
Purpose of the Study	3
Feminist research methodology	4
Feminist theology	6
Research report write-up	6
Pastoral care	7
Research Approach	8
Written Documents	9
A summary of the chapters that follow	11
Chapter 2. Toward a Postmodern discourse in gender and sexuality	13
Introduction	13
Discourse	13
Modernism discourse	13
Modernity and Sexuality	14
Toward a post-modern discourse	15
Postmodernism and gender	16
Social Construction	16
Social Construction of gender	17
Social construction of woman in an African context	18
Power/Knowledge	19
Power and Gender/Sexuality	20
Deconstruction	20
Deconstruction of Gender/Sexuality	21
Contextual Theology	22
Strands of Feminist Theology	23
Christian Feminist Theology	23
African women's theology	25
Chapter 3. Exploring Gender Issues	27
Introduction	27
Gender bias	27
Enlivening the participants	28
Personal Introduction and Setting off	29
Feminism: A misunderstood terminology	30
Holistic approach	32
Participatory ethics	32
An awareness of gender related issues	33
Violence against women	36
Health issues	37
Group Consciousness	39
Conclusion	41

Chapter 4. Gender, traditional culture and work culture	43
Introduction.	43
What is culture?	43
Women viewed through the eyes of culture	44
Marriage and gender	46
The power of culture	47
Pastoral care	51
Gender as understood by a working housewife	51
Gender issues at work	52
Sexual harassment	53
Employment and gender	54
Participants' Research Feedback on Employment	56
Gender Consciousness among working women	58
Conclusion	58
 Chapter 5. Gender and Church culture	 60
Introduction	60
Cathy's Story	60
Complementarian and Egalitarian Views	61
A brief summary of women in the Bible & Church history	63
The Old Testament	64
The New Testament	65
The Early Church	65
Some reflections of the participants	66
Women in the church of tomorrow in Zambia	67
The Consequences of engendering the Gospel	68
Oppression of Women	69
African patriarchy and the church	71
CONCLUSION	72
 Chapter 6. Reflections	 73
Introduction	73
General reflections on the research methodology	73
Deconstruction of my power	74
Research curiosity	75
Purpose of the study	75
Personal reflections	77
Relating research knowledges with existing knowledges, 'theory'/discourse.	78
Women's language	78
Research language	79
Implications of the research for research	80
Working with a homogeneous body	81
Implications of the research for social change	82
Construction of women's lives	83
Women's lived experiences: A priority	83
Implications for the research for the future	84
The participants' responses and reflections	86
Conclusion	88
 Bibliography	 89
 Appendices	 99

Acknowledgments

This research project is the result of many hours of workshops and conversations with facilitators, students at the Gospel Literature Outreach Bible College, and supervisors. I sincerely wish to thank the following people for their contribution to this research:

Prof. Dirk Kotzé and Prof. J.S. Dreyer, my research supervisors. Thank you Dirk, my mentor, for your inspirational and challenging teaching as well as for your helpful suggestions on my initial drafts.

The facilitators and students of 2003 Gospel Literature Outreach Bible College intake for their willingness to story their lived experiences. These stories formed the foundation of this research project.

Dr. Andy Ostins and his wife Caroline for proof reading the final draft.