WINDRUSH

DRAPER STREET

CLAREMONT, CAPE

Dear Jack and Maida,

30.10.59.

Neil and I are full of admiration for the magnificent stand you have taken and we can imagine what it must have cost you to come to that decision. But I am sure it is the right one, and, as you said, you would never be happy in the new set-up. Despite the uncertainties of the immediate future it must be a great relief to you both to have decided finally.

No more now, except to say that our thoughts are very much with you.

With warmest greetings

Leo.
