Dear Sir,

re: DISMISSAL :: TSHANGATSHANGA.

Further to our telephonic conversation in regard to the above matter please find enclosed herewith copies of a statement submitted to us by Mr. Tshangatschanga and a letter written to him by Mrs. B.M. Gwaza, both of which are confidential documents, and kindly return to us after perusal.

The latest information about this matter is that the local Manager is now sorry that he has ever taken the steps that he took against our client and has actually written to Head Office pleading that our client should be reinstated but that Head Office is not prepared to entertain the suggestion.

It is our hope that something may yet be done to remedy the position.

Yours faithfully,

L. L. MTSHIZANA & T.T.T. MAJA
